Students may now combine the quality, affordability and other benefits of a Dutchess Community College education with the experience of living away at college. Conklin Hall, a beautiful, suite-style residence hall, opened on campus in fall 2012.

The fully furnished units are designed for comfort, safety and convenience, and the building's residence-life staff, amenities and programs combine to create a welcoming environment that enriches the student experience. The residence hall is designed to meet the needs of traditional-age college freshmen and sophomores (those entering directly—or soon after—graduation from high school).

Features include:
- Convenient location near academic buildings, campus activities, sporting events and student services
- 465 beds configured in spacious suites
- Lounge on each floor
- Multi-purpose atrium
- Wireless Internet and cable television service
- Laundry, fitness and mail rooms
- Vending area
- Noncombustible construction
- Sprinklers throughout
- 24-hour security
- Central entrance and exit
- Controlled access
- On-site resident director, graduate and resident assistants
- Geothermal heating and cooling

Housing applications from students who will be enrolled full time in an associate degree program at DCC will be accepted beginning in January for the following fall semester. Students who wish to live in the residence hall should apply early—and complete financial aid paperwork by May 1—as space is limited.
