Economic Impact

Dutchess Community College provides the region with a well-educated and skilled workforce. Furthermore, the College positively impacts the economic vitality of Dutchess County by creating jobs, purchasing goods and services in the local economy, and generating income for community residents.

- The College employs over 900 full- and part-time employees.
- DCC's payroll and overall budget allocations flow into the region's economy.
- Increased tax revenue is generated by the improved earnings of DCC graduates.

Dutchess Community College is situated on a 130-acre hilltop campus in the Town of Poughkeepsie. Founded in 1957 as a unit of the State University of New York and sponsored by the citizens of Dutchess County, the College maintains an open admission policy to accord the many, rather than the few, an opportunity to realize their full potential.
